New Records Set For Food Prices

Wheat, Oats Hit Peaks on Exchanges, Meat, Eggs, Butter Gain

(By The Associated Press)
More records toppled today under the pressure of rising prices on most major commodity exchanges.

On the Chicago Board of Trade wheat earmarked for December delivery hit a 30-year high of $3.16 1/2 a bushel and December oats sold at $1.26 1/2, a new all-time high for any oats contract. The May wheat contract also joined the select $3 a bushel circle. Cotton futures advanced into new seasonal high ground in New York, with mid morning prices $1 to $1.95 a bale higher, December 35.31 cents a pound.

Hogs, cattle and sheep were higher at the Chicago stockyards and eggs and butter futures advanced on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. Meanwhile, a retail boost of 65 cents a ton on coal was announced for the Pittsburgh district and the U. S. Rubber Company raised prices 5 to 8 per cent on passenger car tires, 5 to 7 1/2 per cent on truck tires and 5 to 7 1/2 per cent on tractor tires. The Sun Oil Co. said it would increase by 50 cents a barrel the price paid for crude oil.

Near the end of the first hour of trading in Chicago, wheat was 2 1/2 to 4 cents a bushel higher, December $3.16 1/2; corn was 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 higher, December $2.57 1/2; and oats were 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher, December $1.25 1/2. Soybeans were 5 to 6 cents higher, March $3.95.

French Fire 66 Police Officials

No Explanation Is Made of Action; Communists Call It 'Purge'

BY NIEL MOST

Paris, Nov. 28 (AP)—Sixty-six police commissioners were fired today as Premier Robert Schuman met with his ministers "to do something" about regulating the spreading, Communist-instigated strikes which are slowly strangling French economic life.

Each of the commissioners who lost jobs was in charge of a district. There was no official explanation of the action but the Communist organ, L'Humanite, called it a "purge." The commissioners were described as veterans of the "French Resistance," appointed after liberation.

Schuman is known to be afraid of letting the Communists gain control of the French police. The police abstained from voting last night when unions of government employees split on a motion to strike. Six unions rejected the strike call, four supported it.

Schuman, armed with a fresh vote of confidence, met with his new cabinet under the chairmanship of President Vincent Auriol to consider means of fulfilling the promise the premier made to the Chamber of Deputies early this morning that "proofs of the government's energy" in combating the ominous wave of strikes would be displayed before the day is ended.

His government, less than a week old, won a narrow victory in the Chamber at 4:15 a. m., the final count showing 322 for him and 133 against him, with 83 abstentions. That was 90 votes less than he got in his first vote of confidence last Saturday. His popular Republican Party and the Socialists backed him, the Communists voted against him and Rightists abstained.

Trustees Agree to Hold Another Meeting on Proposition in December

The entire student body of the Rifton Rock School in the village of Rifton, Town of Esopus, marched throughout the village Wednesday in a demonstration against a public election held Tuesday evening, during which plans to build a new school were defeated by three votes.

On Wednesday the students formed a mass parade, carrying placards proclaiming "We live in a ghost town," and "Our elders have let us down." A group of 12 five-year-olds joined the parade carrying a banner reading "We start to school next year. Please show us where we will sit."

The meeting which touched off the demonstrations was called Tuesday by school trustees Arthur Whitehall, Charles Troll, and Lambert Decker. The proposition before the taxpayers was one to authorize the expenditure of $80,000 to provide the village with a new two-classroom school building. The proposition received 96 votes in favor and 53 against, just three short of the two-thirds vote necessary under state law to pass such a proposal.

The proposed school was defeated. Continued on Page Eighteen

Harold V. Clayton announced today that he has resigned his position as assistant to the president of the State of New York National Bank. His resignation will become effective December 31.

14 High Nazi Officers Are Indicted; Will Be Last of Important Officers to Be Tried

Nuernberg, Nov. 28 (AP)—Three German field marshals, 10 generals and one admiral—last of the important military figures in the Nazi high command to be tried by United States authorities—have been indicted on charges of crimes against peace and humanity.

The 14 are accused in a U. S. indictment made public today, of planning, preparing, initiating and waging wars of aggression and invasion of other countries; of murder, torture, deportations, enslavement into forced labor and mistreatment of millions of persons; of plunder of public and private property; of wanton devastation and destruction of cities, towns and villages and of "other grave crimes."

The defendants are: Field Marshal Wilhelm von Leeb, who commanded the 12th Army which occupied the Sudetenland, and later was an arm group commander-in-chief in the invasion of France. Field Marshal Hugo Sperrle, who commanded the German air fleet which bombed England from its bases in France. Field Marshal Georg Karl Freidrich Wilhelm von Kuechler, who commanded the 18th Army and later the Army Group North, both in Russia. Gen. Johannes Blaskowitz, who commanded German forces in the

Hit-Run Incident Leads to Arrest of 4 Teen-Age Boys

State Troopers Apprehend Youths After Car Has Accident in Orange County

A hit-and-run affair Wednesday in New Windsor, Orange county, was the downfall of four youths who had apparently started out on a tour of the country in a stolen car which was taken in Syracuse on November 21. All four of the teen age youths are now in the Ulster county jail awaiting a hearing before Justice of the Peace John O. Beaver at Esopus on Saturday. The charge is grand larceny, second degree, and bail is $1,000 for each of the four.

The escapade apparently had its inception in the minds of the youths while they were in Children's Village, Dobbs Ferry. At least all four of the lads, according to State Police were at the village, one of them being discharged Wednesday morning. Ernest Gratien, 17, of 140 West Brighton street, Syracuse, allegedly stole a 1941 convertible Buick in Syracuse on November 21 and then proceeded to collect several companions. James Hanrahan, 16, of 404 Millard street, Schenectady, and Leonard Wolachen, 18, of 708 Schenectady avenue, Brooklyn, were picked up and the trio then drove to Dobbs Ferry on Wednesday to get Norman Eaton, 17, of 272 Front street, Binghamton, who was discharged Wednesday morning from the home.

According to the stories told by the boys they then returned to Brooklyn and later started up state. At New Windsor, while Hanrahan was driving, it is charged, the Buick sideswiped a car. The license number of the Buick was obtained by a witness and police were notified.

A message was sent out on the police teletype system and picked up at the Highland State Police barracks. There a message was sent out by radio to State Police cars and Cpl. Arthur A. Reilly and Cpl. Charles Austin intercepted the message while driving from Kingston to Highland.

Trust Company Plans Openings on Saturday

Beginning Saturday, December 6, the Kingston Trust Company will abandon the policy which has been in effect since last spring of remaining closed all day Saturday. Beginning Saturday, December 6, the Kingston Trust Company will be open for business each Saturday morning from 9 until 12 noon.

Other banks in the city reported they had taken no action on the Saturday policy, and will continue to be closed on Saturday mornings pending future action which may be taken.

The Friday evening hours will continue to be observed by those banks which adopted that policy last spring when the Saturday closing was out into effect on a trial basis.

Kelder Asks Rochester Rate Be Moved Up One Per Cent; Various Bills Are Presented to Officials

Five Democratic members of the Board of Supervisors and one Republican voted in opposition to the adoption of the Equalization Committee's equalization table at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Board of Supervisors. Supervisor Stanley F. Kelder of Rochester joined with five Democratic supervisors in opposing the table which placed the Rochester rate at 68 per cent, one point below the rate recommended in the State table. Others voting in opposition were Supervisors Jordan, Koenig, Schatzel, Williams and Smith, all of Kingston. Supervisor Kelb of Wawarsing declined to vote.

The Equalization table was adopted by a 25 to 6 vote.

Prior to voting Supervisor Kelder asked the clerk to read the state table and the committee's table. The state table fixed the Rochester rate of 69 per cent and the committee reported a 68 per cent rate. Supervisor Williams of the Sixth Ward stated that the rates as fixed by the committee were not in accord with the recommendation of the State Tax Commission's recommendation, in that the city of Kingston and Rochester as well as Shawangunk had been placed below the state recommendation. As a member of the Equalization Committee he said he had attended the sessions of the committee and saw no reason for the discrimination. He charged that Shawangunk might have been cut two points because the town had been "turned over" and a Democratic supervisor elected.

Consignors Named At Holiday Fair at Woodstock Guild
The annual Holiday Fair opened at the Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen this afternoon and is representative of work done by craftsmen living in the various communities throughout Ulster county.

Articles produced by consignors with nation-wide reputations for their skill in working with such materials as silver, copper, brass, aluminum, fine leather, cowhide, clay, wood, linen, pure wool, cotton and wax suggest to the imagination what an opportunity is offered for selecting unusual Christmas gifts. Students from near and far in the craft classes given throughout the year at the Guild Centre, are also represented by work of exceptional freshness and quality. There are books by famous writers and illustrators, some of which are autographed.

There are many who do not realize that a large number of Guild consignors do not live in Woodstock. In this group are Mrs. Carrie Adams, Mount Marion; Arnold N. Bellows, West Hurley; John Brown, Shandaken; A. A. Chapman, Saugerties; Mr. and Mrs. William M. Dawn, Mrs. Dora Felton, Mrs. Helen Garrett, Mrs. Anne Kennedy, Morris Klein, Mrs. Augusta Reed, Mrs. Anna Sawyer, Mrs. Emily Schaffer, Henry Segalzie, Mrs. Sibylla Strohsaid, Mrs. Anna Winchell, Saugerties. Kingston is well represented with Ferris MacDaniel, Mrs. Mary Pratt, Mrs. M. Davis Russ, Edward Regan, Mrs. G. S. Sargent, Mrs. Roy Stalter, Mrs. Arnold VanAken, Mrs. Edward I. McCaffery and Ben Styles.

Elsewhere in the county are Evelyn Lynker, Mount Marion; Mrs. W. W. Lidge, Edinville; Mrs. Richard Gruver, Hurley; Mrs. Rachel Mattheson, Lake Mohonk; Mrs. Bell Segalke, Phoenix; Miss Anne Budenbeck, Stone Ridge; and William Ryan, High Woods. Also, Miss Meta Schatschneider, Gattenberg, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox Tenafly, N. J.; Mrs. Marion Woods, Van Nuys, Calif.; and John Barker, Va.

The lovely Christmas decorations to be seen inside and outside of the Guild Centre are the work of Mrs. Raoul Nadeau and Mrs. Raymond Kargere who are reported to have spent many hours tramping through the woods to select and cut their own Christmas trees and Christmas greens.

The fair will continue through December 23 and is open daily from 1:30 to 5:30 every afternoon including Sunday.

Woodstock Water Tests to Be Made

Experimental Drilling Will Begin Near Bridge on Yerry Hill

Woodstock, Nov. 28 (AP)—Experimental well drilling will begin next week on a property off Yerry Hill road as the first definite step toward establishing a source for public water supply in the village of Woodstock. It was announced today.

The announcement followed the signing of a lease for a three-months' option on a six-acre tract owned by L. C. Dixon near the old red bridge on the road which joins the Woodstock-Bearsville highway.

The lease authorizing the town to make the test was signed Wednesday in the Office of Attorney John Egan, who represents the township and the owner of the property. Supervisor Kenneth Wilson of the Town of Woodstock was present at the signing.

Harold Lapo, local well-driller, is scheduled to begin tests early next week and if water is found in sufficient quantity on the property, the town officials will negotiate for the purchase of the property.

Secretary, Taft Clash At Hearing

Senator Asks Whether Administration Acts in 'Good Faith' in Asking Controls

Questions Asked

Sen. Watkins Queries Harriman, Seeking News of Program

Washington, Nov. 28 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Harriman said today lower prices for meats, steel and lumber are "hopes" from President Truman's 10 point "anti-inflation" program.

The cabinet member, testifying before the Senate House Economic Committee, mentioned these lower price goals in response to a series of questions by Senator Watkins (D-Utah) about the "overall plans" of the administration.

Earlier, Harriman and Senator Taft (R-Ohio) had clashed over whether the administration is acting in "good faith" in asking for allocation controls.

Taft said he thought it was not—that the administration is "talking about limited authority" but actually seeking "unlimited controls."

Harriman protested that there was quite a difference between limited authority and complete controls.

When the price matter was raised, Watkins first asked if the anti-inflation program "contemplates a rollback of prices?"

Harriman replied he spoke only for himself but "it would be the hope that certain prices which are unbalanced could be rolled back."

"You say that's a hope, what is the definite program?" Watkins pressed.

Watkins retorted that through controls and allocations it was expected that "less essential" demands might be cut down and scarce supplies given to most pressing demands. He said meats would be in shorter supply next year than now.

Watkins said controls on export of farm machinery were dropped at a time when this machinery was in extreme short supply in the United States.

Harriman said that 1947 exports of farm machinery were 15.9 per cent of total production compared with 16.6 per cent in 1935 and 25 per cent in 1929.

Watkins retorted that the earlier years were not times of domestic shortages.

Watkins also said that a threatened shortage of gasoline and fuel oil could be averted if domestic Continued on Page Two

Jury Trial Is Set For Willow Man; Denies Any Guilt

Woodstock, Nov. 28 (AP)—A trial is scheduled for William Carver of Willow December 22 in the town hall here before Peace Justice George J. Brandeny on a charge that the Willow man had a carcass of wild deer on his premises prior to the official opening of the deer season in the Catskill mountains. Carver was arrested Wednesday by State Trooper Ray Dunn of the Phoenix sub-station of the state police. Arraigned before the peace justice he pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. He was represented by attorney William Riskey of Kingston and was released under $500 bail.

The trial, it was reported, is the first to be scheduled for the town hall here in many months.

Penney Employees For Over a Year Will Get Bonus

Employees of the J. C. Penney Company store on Wall street will share in a special bonus plan announced recently by the board of directors of the company, it was learned today.

The directors decided, it was announced, that a payment of two weeks' extra salary will be made for all "full-time associates, who have been employed for the full year of 1947 and on a proportionate basis for extra and part-time associates and for those employed for less than a year."

All associates, the report said, "except those who are members of the management staff and whose earnings are determined largely by the company's long-standing profit-sharing plan," will share in the payment.

H. S. Chatham, manager of the local store, said that 35 employed there will share in the plan and that 50,000 "Penney Associates" throughout the nation will benefit by it.

The local manager said that the plan was not a Christmas bonus in the usual sense, and that it was non-recurring. It is being made, he explained, in recognition of the unusual business and economic conditions which exist today.

The company "some years ago substituted a profit and profit-sharing plan for the more usual Christmas bonus, and into this plan is annually paid a proportionate share of company earnings," the announcement said.

Fuel Oil Shortage Will Be Felt Here Says Spokesman

Although foresight by 107 dealers has furnished Kingston with a reserve reservoir for 1,000,000 gallons, the city and surrounding area probably will feel the national effect of a fuel oil shortage.

This announcement was made this morning by S. L. Rider of Kingston, secretary of the Hudson Valley Fuel Oil Dealers Association, who said that there would be a 12 to 15 per cent cut in the normal supply.

"To minimize this situation calls for the closest cooperation between the distributor and consumer," Mr. Rider stressed. The fuel oil user may expect a maximum of no more fuel this year than was burned last year and last year was 10 per cent warmer than normal.

The suggestion of Secretary Rider was "Start your personal conservation program now to avoid hardship later." He made these suggestions:

1. Keep your thermostat under 70 degrees.
2. Close off unused rooms and radiators in sleeping rooms.
3. Install storm windows and insulate your home.
4. Have your heater cleaned and burner properly adjusted.

The Hudson Valley Fuel Oil Dealers Association is comprised of 107 of the fuel oil dealers in Kingston and vicinity.

Too Many Deer in State

Concord, N. H., Nov. 28 (AP)—Deer have become so numerous in some sections of New Hampshire that the state today began advertising good hunting areas as a measure to keep down crop damage claims from farmers. Under New Hampshire law, the state must pay for damage caused by deer.

oil and gas industries received steel pipe.

Harriman agreed to send the committee complete data later on exports of farm machinery and steel pipe.

Harriman had listed a number of materials which he said should be covered by "limited" allocation and priority powers when the exchange with Taft developed. Generally speaking, allocation is the authority to say what use is made of the national supply of any commodity under control.

Taft said he couldn't understand the distinction between "limited powers" and "100 per cent complete" authority. He said the administration, if granted the authority, is seeking actually would have blanket power to allocate what it chooses and to the extent it desires.

"I don't think your proposals are in good faith," Taft declared. Harriman protested that there is a difference between the administration's proposal to restrict the application of allocation powers, and the 100 per cent power Taft was talking about.

31, when he will leave to take another position outside the city. He stated that he is not at liberty at present to disclose the nature of his new employment.

The directors of the bank will probably act upon Clayton's resignation at their next regular meeting, which is scheduled for December 9.

For the present, Clayton said, his family will remain at their home at 93 Roosevelt avenue, where he now resides with his wife Alice, and their two children, Millicent, 11, and Joe, 4.

Joined Staff in '29

Clayton joined the staff of the State of New York National Bank as a teller in 1929. In 1932 he became an assistant cashier, and in 1934 he was appointed cashier.

He was a captain, commanding Battery A, 156th Field Artillery, New York National Guard, when that unit was called into federal service in September, 1940. He remained in active service until October, 1945, when he was released from active duty with the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He was awarded the Bronze Star medal for meritorious achievement in service.

At that time he returned to the State of New York National Bank as assistant to the president, which position he currently holds.

President of C. of C.

Clayton is president of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce, having been elected to that office on February 3 of this year. His term will expire on January 1, 1948, so he will be able to complete his full term before he leaves Kingston.

they stopped the car and picked up the four youths. Meanwhile at the Highland barracks Troopers had observed the car passing the station, headed north.

The four boys were taken to the Highland station and a charge of grand larceny was lodged against them. Taken before Justice John O. Beaver at Exeter, the boys were held in $1,000 bail for examination on Saturday. Meanwhile the Syracuse authorities were notified and the Syracuse authorities notified local police that Gratien, who was driving the car at Port Jervis when the Troopers apprehended the boys, had been involved in other car affairs in Onondaga county. Officials at Dobbs Ferry were also contacted. Syracuse officials are expected to come to Kingston today and Gratien may be turned over and taken back to answer to a larceny charge there.

Investigation as to the status of the other three was still being made today.

The Committee on Commissioner of Public Welfare also reported the examination of claims as reported by the County Commissioner of Public Welfare and recommended that the claims as reported be paid and that there be assessed and levied against the city and towns of the county such amounts to pay the cost of welfare work. The same committee reported bills for care of children in the Industrial Home and Boarding homes to be correct and recommended that the sum of $73,425.80 be levied and assessed against the city and towns to pay same. A resolution was offered to that effect and was passed.

Supervisor Harry Snyder gave notice that at some future meeting he would move to suspend the rule which prohibits voting on resolutions calling for an appropriation at the same meeting as introduced.

Resolutions were offered and voted that there be raised the sum of $50,000 on the county for the County Road Fund, this fund to be matched by state funds; that $15,000 be raised for the Machinery Fund; that $50,000 be raised for the Bridge Fund; that $100,000 be appropriated for Snow Removal and that of this $60,000 be transferred from the balance in the County Highway Fund and $40,000 be assessed and levied against the county.

It was also moved that $5,769.44 be transferred from the balance in the Veterans Service Fund to the Insurance Fund to pay a deficit. Adopted.

Clerk Simpson notified the members that all supervisors bills must be in by December 1. On December 1 at 5:30 o'clock the annual inspection of the Tuberculosis Hospital will take place. The Salaries Committee will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Supervisor Boice notified the Board that members of the East Kingston Rod and Gun Club were in favor of maintaining the fox bounty.

The board adjourned until this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Lt. Gen. Otto Woehler, commander of Army Group South in Russia.

Lt. Gen. Rudolf Lehmann, legal counsel of the Wehrmacht.

Lt. Gen. Hermann Reinecke, chief of the National Socialist Guidance staff of the high command.

All the defendants except Rouques and Woehler are charged with crimes against peace. Ten of them figure in the charges of war crimes and crimes against humanity, mainly in Russia.

The indictment alleges that American and British paratroopers and uniformed members of commando task forces were executed under an army order that they "be slaughtered to the last man."

"Murder and violence by German troops were encouraged by German army order," the indictment stated.

The case is under the direction of James McInerney of Little Rock, Ark. Paul Niederman of Chicago heads the legal staff. He is assisted by Walter Rapp of San Francisco and Eugene Dobbs of New York.

U. S. Population Grows

Washington, Nov. 28 (AP)—The United States population was 144,708,000 on October 1, the Census Bureau estimated today. The record figure includes the armed forces, whose strength was 587,000 overseas and 748,000 at home.

The civilian population alone was 143,973,000. The Bureau said the population has increased more than 13,000,000, or almost 10 per cent, in the seven and one half years since the last census was taken April 1, 1940. In the 1930-1940 period, the gain was less than 9,000,000 persons or 7.2 per cent.

Two Killed in Japan Trying to See Emperor

Tokyo, Nov. 28 (AP)—A surprising crowd in Tottori, anxious for a glimpse of touring Emperor Hirohito, fell 30 feet when a film's wooden overpass at the railway station collapsed. Two died and 25 others were seriously injured.

Tottori is southwest of Osaka, on the north coast of Honshu. The Emperor's current tour of this district will take him to atom-bombed Hiroshima next week

Men Rob Liquor Store
Of $761 and Whiskey

New York, Nov. 28 (AP)—Three unidentified men entered the Argus wine and liquor store, 944 Aldus street, the Bronx, last night, threatened the proprietor with a knife and escaped with $761 and several cases of rye whiskey, police reported.

The proprietor, Saul Wanetick,

29, told police he was about to close the store when one of the men entered and bought a bottle of liquor.

On his way out the customer stopped at the door and waved his arm, Wanetick said, and two other men entered. While two of the men held their hands in their pockets as if concealing guns, the third brandished a large clasp knife and ordered Wanetick into a rear room, he said.

He told police he gave up his wallet containing $10 before being locked in the room and that the men piled a dozen cases of liquor in front of the door to prevent his escape. They then took $751 from the cash register and left, he said.

Wanetick said he managed to free himself about 20 minutes after the men left and that when he took inventory he found the cases of whiskey missing.

At U-F... Sparkle Plenty...everybody's baby!

If you read "Dick Tracy" (and who doesn't) you know about Sparkle...

America's Sweetheart!

If you read "Dick Tracy" you know all about Sparkle Plenty (she's Gravel Gertie's and J. O.
Plenty's daughter). U-F thinks she's the most wonderful girl in the world. Pick her up, she's as warm and snugly as a real baby, because she's made of soft "Magic Skin." You can do a million things with her long golden hair.
You can brush it, braid it, and sweep it right up on top of her beautiful head (which is plastic and unbreakable). Sparkle's eyes really sparkle. They're a deep, deep blue, all fringed with coal black curly eyelashes. And you won't love Sparkle just for her beauty alone. She's quite a gymnast even at her tender age. She can move her head and arms, wiggle her toes, and clasp her fingers together. She can yawn up and go to sleep. And she can be bathed and powdered just like any other new baby. Her layette consists of a cotton flannel macque and

A dentist who has treated men of all nationalities says this is the way the different ones look at the question of having their teeth fixed:

The German's question was — How much?

The Frenchman asked — How long will it take?

The Swede — Will it hurt?

The Dutchman said — I would like my teeth fixed.

The Englishman asked no questions at all, but simply sat down in the chair in absolute silence.

Correct this sentence: "I'm glad I'm not a writer," said the mechanic, "for brain work is a lot harder than the kind I do."

"John, take that ink away from the baby."

"It's too young to write a novel."

Speaker—Nothing that is false ever does anybody any good.

Old Man (in audience)—You're wrong, stranger. I have false teeth and they do me a lot of good.

Inquiring Schoolboy — Daddy, what effect does the moon have on the tides?

Dad (from the depths of his newspaper)—Not any son. Only on the untied.

The final test of a gentleman is the respect he pays those who can be of no possible service to him.

Girl.

Over Her Head

Having only recently moved into the district, she was determined to impress the neighbors. She arranged for a musical "at home" and told her husband to see to the booking of a musician to entertain the guests.

"Have you engaged the pianist, yet?" she asked a few days before the great evening.

"Yes, my dear," he replied, "a great virtuoso."

She looked annoyed.

"Never mind about his morals. Can he play?"

Veterans Advised
About Government
Insurance Policies

The Ulster County Veterans Service Agency today reminded all World War 2 veterans that the deadline for reinstatement of National Service Life Insurance without a physical examination is January 1, 1948.

A comparative health statement, the payment of only two premiums on a term policy or all missed premiums on a permanent policy, with the application are all that is required for reinstatement, providing this action is taken before the new year.

After the January 1 deadline, however, according to the present regulations, it will be necessary in most cases to provide actual evidence of the insured's present health in order to reinstate N.S.L.I. This will involve a thorough physical examination and may result in medical findings which will deny the applicant the right to reinstate his policy.

Every veteran who has allowed his National Service Life Insurance to lapse is urged to call at the agency and take the necessary steps for reinstatement. Information regarding all phases of the insurance, and the needed applications may be obtained any day between 9 and 5 (Saturdays 9-12) and on Fridays until 9 p. m. when the agency remains open for the convenience of those who find it impossible to call during the usual hours.

Look for Moselle Wines Again

Reaping a peak four-million-gallon wine crop, harvesters of Grevenmarcher in Luxembourg's Moselle River valley pour ripe grapes into buckets to be transported to wineries for crushing. This year the little duchy, noted for its Moselle wines, is able to reach maximum production for the first time in 30 years. The bountiful crop will provide a surplus for export, so Americans will again enjoy the famed wines.

Experts Outline
Grain Savings
Way to Cut Prices

Methods for the saving of livestock feed to lessen shortages and high prices predicted for the year ahead, were outlined by two experts from the New York State College of Agriculture at a meeting of regional feed dealers and agricultural agents in the Governor Clinton Hotel Tuesday.

The speakers were Prof. E. I. Robertson of the poultry department of the college, and Prof. J. D. Burke, of the animal husbandry department.

They told the 40 dealers present that there is no doubt of a feed shortage next year and that farmers will be obliged to reduce herds and general livestock or cut the amount of feed used. The experts also stressed that prices will undoubtedly be high next year.

Albert Kurdt, Ulster county agricultural agent reported that the group was given excellent advice on the means of conserving feed and that a similar meeting was requested for next year.

Farmers were shown how to use to the fullest extent such home-grown feeds as corn, oats and wheat.

Many in the group visited the laboratory of the state veterinarian college on Prince street following the session which began at 10 a. m. and ended at 4 p. m.

Hitch your Braggin' to this Star

You're only doing what comes naturally if you boast just a little when a brand-new automobile comes into your life.

That being so, why not do the job up brown—and make sure your future holds some things that are really worth bragging about?

Things, for instance, as far out front as the styling you see here—bright and fresh as tomorrow morning and just as sure a herald of what's in the wind.

Things like Fireball power, eight cylinders big, that puts wings on your going and zoom into every cross-country run.

Things like the comfort of three-person seats, and the good solid steadiness that only enough road-weight can give you.

Things like Safety-Ride rims that give you the softness of 25-lb. tire pressures, yet mean firmness and control in tight spots and sure, positive traction all the time.

Things like four coil springs, one on each wheel, that put a cushion over every bump and make front-seat and back-seat rides equally soft and buoyant.

Things like handling that is light as your wife's tender touch, a gas treadle that needs only a hint to give action, brakes with a bulldog's bite and stubborn grip.

Things, in short, such as Buick gives you—things you find in such abundant measure only in this trim and tidy traveler.

They're all things that can be yours if you'll see your Buick dealer, with or without a car to trade, and get your firm order in now.

Accidents Take 10 Lives Over Holiday

Four Persons Are Killed in Crossing Cruekup at Auburn

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 23 (AP)—Accidents claimed 10 lives in upstate New York over the Thanksgiving holiday, including four in a railroad crossing crash. Killed at Auburn yesterday when their automobile was struck by a Lehigh Valley train were: Mario E. Ferro, 35; his wife, Josephine, 28; their daughter, Dolores, 5, and a nephew, John De Marzio, 2, all of Auburn. Other fatalities by communities: Oswego—Mrs. Mary Mitchell, 55, and her grandson, Andrew Wells, 3, both of North Tonawanda, automobile-truck collision. Utica—Joseph Walszewski, 70, and his wife, Mary, 68, asphyxiated by gas from a stove in their home. Syracuse—Robert J. Radley, 16, East Syracuse, car crashed into trees. Batavia—Harvey Bolton, 83, hit by automobile.

Wants All to See
Washington, Nov. 23 (AP)—President Truman expressed the wish today that all peoples of the world could view the "Freedom Train" so they might know this nation's only goal is freedom of the individual and "world peace."

Horse Is Shot Following Ireland Corners Crash

A horse owned by Mrs. Isobel Gunderson of Ireland Corners was shot following an accident early Wednesday morning on Route 208 near Ireland Corners, according to the state police.

The police reported that the horse was in collision with an auto, operated by Carl Richard Ingensom of Succasunna, N. J., who is employed by the General Electric Co. of Schenectady. State Trooper Thomas Herron, who investigated, reported that the horse had apparently walked in front of the car as it was traveling south on the highway. The animal's injuries were of such severe nature, the officer said, that it was necessary to shoot it.

No Relief Ahead In Northeast From Cold, Is Report

(By The Associated Press)
Cold weather lingered over the northeastern quarter of the country today and federal forecasters said there was no immediate relief in sight.

In other sections of the country, temperatures were moderate and sunny skies were predicted for most of the south and west. The mercury climbed into the 50's in Kentucky yesterday and was expected to reach that mark in parts of Oklahoma today.

New seasonal lows were reported in some sections of the midwest. The coldest weather was in Minnesota, with Duluth's two below zero on the early morning weather map. Minneapolis and St. Cloud shivered in zero temperatures. Chicago's 12 above was a new low for the season. Snow flurries were reported during the night from the Dakotas and eastern Nebraska eastward to the Appalachians.

LeClerc Is Killed
Paris, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Air Ministry announced tonight that Gen. LeClerc, France's famous armored warfare leader, was killed in an airplane crash in the Sahara Desert.

France Proposes 100 Millions Be Given to Russia

London, Nov. 23 (AP)—France proposed today that Russia receive $100,000,000 from current production in Austria as part of the general reparations settlement, a qualified source said.

The proposal made to deputies of the big four foreign ministers who were seeking agreement on a treaty of independence and peace for Austria. The ministers themselves were considering the future of Germany and its boundaries.

The informant said the French suggested that Russia receive a third of the production of the Zisterdorf oil fields indefinitely and take over virtually all Austrian shipping on the Danube. A Russian source forecast that the Soviet Union would reject the French compromise on the issue of what constitute German assets in Austria.

The French proposals were said to have been made in a new attempt to break the deadlock among Russia, the United States, Great Britain and France on what constitute German assets in Russia and what might be used for reparations.

The Russian deputy, H. V. Koltomov, questioned his French counterpart, Gen. Paul Cherrier, more than two hours about details of the French compromise.

The French proposal appeared to be based on the reparations agreement reached between Russia and Finland, by which Finland in effect agreed to "buy" all German assets in her territory for $300,000,000. Thus, Soviet ownership of former German property in Finland was avoided.

The United States and the United Kingdom purchased over three-fifths of Canada's exports for the first half of 1947.

Wadlin Explains About Finance in State Government

There has been a lot of confusion and misunderstanding concerning state finance and local assistance, Assemblyman John F. Wadlin told the members and guests of the Ulster National Farm Loan Association at their annual meeting held this week at the Highland Grange Hall.

Fifteen years ago the state budget was 216 million dollars. This year, the speaker said, he had voted for a $67 million dollar state budget, of which 406 million dollars was not spent by the state at all but was sent back to local communities as local assistance.

This means that 59 per cent of the state's budget is spent by local municipalities for education, welfare, health, highway and other government service.

The assemblyman said that these facts no doubt amazed some of his listeners since they would recall complaints that the state was miserly in the treatment of its employees, and of the inadequacy of state assistance.

He warned that the taxes the state collected are based on a prosperous business index and a change in business would drastically alter the amount of state revenue. For this reason it is thought not wise to increase still further the dependence of local government on state collected revenues.

He also mentioned that during the past four years the old state debt had been reduced by 136 million dollars. This was possible because of the prosperity times the state revenues have been high.

Would Ban Purchases

Washington, Nov. 23 (AP)—The Senate voted today to ban France, Italy and Austria from purchasing arms with any aid received under the administration's $597,000,000 Emergency Assistance Bill. Action on the proposal by Senator Taylor (D-Iowa) was taken by voice after Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Foreign Relations Committee said nothing in the bill "remotely contemplates" arms purchases of any kind.

1,420 Jews Arrive

Jerusalem, Nov. 23 (AP)—The British transport Ocean Vigor arrived at Haifa today, carrying 1,420 certified Jewish immigrants, including more than 500 children. A baby was born just as the ship docked. The entire group was composed of families from Cyprus detention camps who had been given quota numbers by camp fellows due for legal entrance to the Holy Land this month.

Chinese Return Broke

Shanghai, Nov. 23 (AP)—One hundred sixty-one Chinese came home, broke and bitter, from Soviet-controlled southern Sakhalin Island north of Japan today. They found conditions here nearly as bleak as those they had left.

Funeral services will be held from the George J. Moylan Funeral Home, Rosendale, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot in Rosendale Plains Cemetery.

New Paltz, Nov. 23—The Rev. John J. Hopkins, 74, pastor of Catholic churches in New Paltz and Gardiner from 1915 to 1922, died Saturday at the rectory of the Catholic Church of Our Lady Queen of Peace, New Dorp, S. I., from a heart ailment. He had been serving the New Dorp Church since 1922 and had been ill for several months. Born in Irvington, Father Hopkins studied at St. Francis Xavier School in Manhattan and was graduated from St. Joseph's Seminary before being ordained to the priesthood by the late Cardinal Farley in St. Patrick's Cathedral on June 18, 1905. For nine years Father Hopkins served as chaplain at the Catholic Protector in the Bronx. During his pastorate at New Dorp he built a $100,000 edifice, a parochial auditorium, a rectory and a convent. Surviving are two sisters, Miss Mary Hopkins, Staten Island and Sister Mary Elizabeth, a nun in the Sisters of Mercy at St. Vincent de Paul Society, Springfield, Va.

The funeral of Michael A. Cashman was held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home and at St. Joseph's Church at 10 o'clock where a solemn high Mass of requiem was offered by the Right Rev. Monsignor Stephen J. Connelly, P. M. The Rev. John D. Simmons, acting as deacon, and the Rev. William Barry, C.S.A., as sub-deacon. The responses to the Mass were by the children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Rafferty. The church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends who came to pay their tribute of respect by assisting at the requiem. There was a very large delegation of Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus, with Joseph Murphy, F.N. The assembly was in charge of Sir Knight Albert J. Weierich. During the days the body reposed in the funeral home, hundreds called to offer their sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family. Wednesday evening members of the Knights of Columbus assembled at the home and assisted Monsignor Connelly in the recitation of the Rosary. The casket was surrounded with beautiful flowers and there were many spiritual comforts, silent tokens of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The bearers were William Geary, Chris Flanagan, George Gotelli, John Finn, Thomas Cloonan and Richard Schick. Burial was in the family plot in St. Mary's cemetery, with Father Simmons giving the final blessing at the grave.

The funeral of Miss Mary Boyd Smith, a native of Rosendale, who taught school there and in Lyonsville and High Falls, prior to joining the New York city educational system, was buried in Trinity Churchyard Cemetery, Hometown, Monday, following funeral services.

In the morning, Miss Smith, known to her friends in the Ulster county area of her home as Mollie, died last Friday. She had lived a retired life for eight years. Surviving are a sister, Maude, with whom she lived; Mrs. Helen Warren of Washington, D. C., and a brother, Bradley Smith, of Poughkeepsie. She was a graduate of New Paltz Normal School.

Andrew J. Lord, retired foreman for the former H. W. Pallen Sons woodworking firm, died Thanksgiving Day at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Anthony Balestrieri, 57 Stephan street, where he had lived for the past 10 years. Mr. Lord, who had lived in retirement for the past 15 years, was a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Alice Donnelly of Kingston and a nephew, Vernon Lord of Schenectady. Funeral will be held from the Wolf Funeral Home, 340 Broadway, Saturday at 2 p. m. at 9 o'clock a Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul at St. Mary's Church. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

William Hermance, a lifelong and highly respected resident of Rosendale, died at his home early this morning after a short illness. Although his death was not unexpected the news will come as a shock to his many relatives and friends. Mr. Hermance at one time operated a bus line from Rosendale to Kingston. He also operated a garage and blacksmith shop in addition to having the Ford Motor Company agency in Rosendale. He was a member of the Lodge 10, F. & A. M. He is survived by three sons, William of Union City, N. J., Samuel and Charles of Rosendale; a daughter, Mrs. Richard Dreiser of Rosendale; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral services will be held from the George J. Moylan Funeral Home, Rosendale, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot in Rosendale Plains Cemetery.

New Paltz, Nov. 23—The Rev. John J. Hopkins, 74, pastor of Catholic churches in New Paltz and Gardiner from 1915 to 1922, died Saturday at the rectory of the Catholic Church of Our Lady Queen of Peace, New Dorp, S. I., from a heart ailment. He had been serving the New Dorp Church since 1922 and had been ill for several months. Born in Irvington, Father Hopkins studied at St. Francis Xavier School in Manhattan and was graduated from St. Joseph's Seminary before being ordained to the priesthood by the late Cardinal Farley in St. Patrick's Cathedral on June 18, 1905. For nine years Father Hopkins served as chaplain at the Catholic Protector in the Bronx. During his pastorate at New Dorp he built a $100,000 edifice, a parochial auditorium, a rectory and a convent. Surviving are two sisters, Miss Mary Hopkins, Staten Island and Sister Mary Elizabeth, a nun in the Sisters of Mercy at St. Vincent de Paul Society, Springfield, Va.

The funeral of Michael A. Cashman was held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the James M. Murphy Funeral Home and at St. Joseph's Church at 10 o'clock where a solemn high Mass of requiem was offered by the Right Rev. Monsignor Stephen J. Connelly, P. M. The Rev. John D. Simmons, acting as deacon, and the Rev. William Barry, C.S.A., as sub-deacon. The responses to the Mass were by the children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Rafferty. The church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends who came to pay their tribute of respect by assisting at the requiem. There was a very large delegation of Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus, with Joseph Murphy, F.N. The assembly was in charge of Sir Knight Albert J. Weierich. During the days the body reposed in the funeral home, hundreds called to offer their sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family. Wednesday evening members of the Knights of Columbus assembled at the home and assisted Monsignor Connelly in the recitation of the Rosary. Christmas Shopping Is Easy—If you deal with

Your Neighborhood Dealer

So many folks buy their smokes, candies and odds and ends of things from their neighborhood dealer all year long. But at Christmas time they get the idea that they must "shop around."

Why wear yourself out on shopping tours when your friend—your neighborhood dealer—has a full stock of Christmas Gift Items. He has nationally advertised merchandise that you can depend upon... at prices as low as (or lower) than if you "shopped the town." Time is growing short. Most stores are crowded... but you can buy in comfort at your neighborhood dealers particularly if you use the Check List and bring it to him for filling.

Walda Winchell Reported Missing By Her Mother

New York, Nov. 28 (AP)—Police pressed a citywide search today for red-haired Walda E. Winchell, 20-year-old actress-daughter of columnist and radio commentator Walter Winchell, reported by her mother to have been missing since Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Winchell, who said her daughter was ill, told police the girl was last seen leaving her Fifth avenue hotel at 3 p. m.

Why Thousands of Doctors Prescribed

PERTUSSIN FOR BAD COUGHS
(CAUSED BY COLDS)

Pertussin acts at once. It not only relieves such coughing but also loosens up phlegm and makes it easier to raise. Pertussin is safer, more effective for old and young! Pleasant tasting!

Wednesday. She did not disclose the nature of Walda's illness. In Hollywood, Winchell, declaring "this is a helluva Thanksgiving," said yesterday that his daughter is "very, very ill, according to several doctors, and needs hospitalization and immediate treatment."

Detectives said last night they had checked all hospitals and other institutions in the city, and all police records for the last 24 hours, without success.

Miss Winchell, using the stage name Toni Eden, has appeared in three Broadway shows: "Up in Central Park," "Dark of the Moon," and "Devils Galore."

She married William F. Lawless, 29, Cambridge, Mass., scenic design student, in June, 1945. Lawless filed suit for divorce in September of the same year and the columnist's daughter entered a cross-suit about a year later.

She withdrew her action when Lawless' suit was dismissed by Judge John C. Leugat of the Massachusetts' Middlesex probate court who commented that Lawless could wait three years and sue for divorce on the grounds of desertion.

Both had charged cruel treatment in their suits.

Man Completes His Factory in Yard

Structure, 80 by 30 Feet,
Required 2 Years;
One-Man Job

Onsted, Mich., Nov. 28 (AP)—Working nights, Sundays and holidays for two years, Louis A. Robin has completed an 80-by-30-foot factory building in his own back yard. Now he'll decide what to do with it.

Robin, former Detroit metal worker, was ditch digger, mason, architect, plumber, electrician, heating engineer and carpenter on the job. He kept his plans in his head. He never laid a concrete block before he started the job.

All during the two-year construction period he was employed on a regular eight-hour shift at Bohn Aluminum & Brass Corporation's Plant 24 in Adrian, Mich.

"Maybe it's funny to spend my off hours building a factory," he said, "but I've got more to show for it than I had spent the time in a beer parlor."

Always interested in metal items, Robin says that he has two or three ideas for products that he will develop and turn out in his factory.

"All my life I've wanted to make a number of articles that I've thought up," he said. "Some of them already have been put on the market by others. But I've still got a few ideas left."

During the First World War, Robin turned an upstairs apartment in Detroit into a small factory for the manufacture of toy airplanes they sold like hot-cakes. Later he became a farmer at Canandaigua, Mich., and did pretty well at it. He liked farming, too. But the lure of the shop called him back. "Once you get wheels in your head," he says, "they don't come out easily."

Robin first planned to start work on a foundry addition to his factory. But now that the building is completed he's going to start manufacturing something or other in it. The foundry addition will come later.

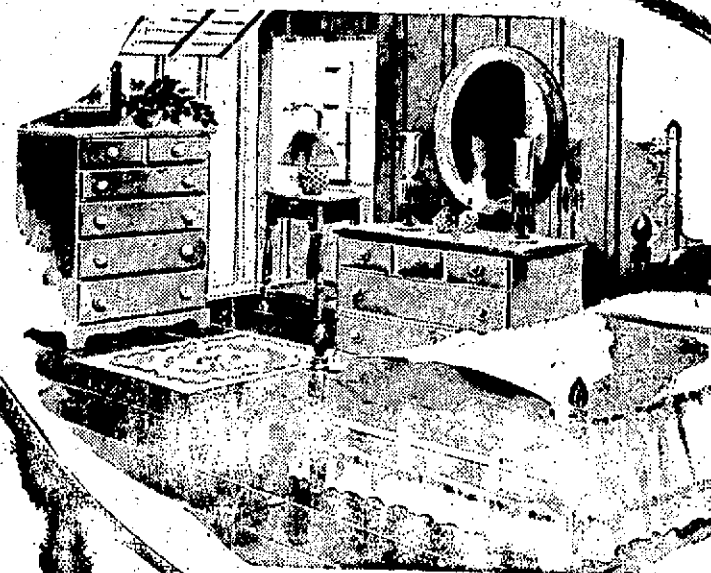

She Paid Half the Tax

Butte, Mont., Nov. 28 (AP)—A woman handed the county treasurer 17 cents in paying property tax for the first half of the year on a small parcel of unimproved farm land. The second half payment will be easier, she said, because it will be only 16 cents.

Markle-Croswell Wedding Took Place Sunday Afternoon

The wedding of Miss Eileen W. Croswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Croswell, Sr., 342 South Wall street, to John Markle, 46 Cedar street, grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Markle, Bloomington, took place at 2 p. m. Sunday in St. James Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Merrill C. Johnson, pastor.

C. Franklin Pierce was organist. Mrs. Mildred Fatum sang "Because" and "O, Perfect Love."

Baskets of chrysanthemums were used in the decorations. Mr. Croswell gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white pen velvet with long fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. She wore a fingertip veil caught with a tiara of orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of white roses with streamers.

Mrs. Donald Robins, her twin sister, and matron of honor, wore an ice blue pen velvet gown with headpiece of blue velvet and net, long pointed mitts and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Ernest O. Graff of Bloomington was best man. Ushers were Roy W. Croswell, Jr., Raymond C. Croswell, brothers of the bride; Roy D. Taylor and Robert Roscott of Creek Locks.

A reception was held at Mannerchor Hall, after which the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip through upstate New York. She wore a brown gabardine suit with gold and brown accessories and a corsage of pompons. They will reside at 46 Cedar street.

Mrs. Markle is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed at Central Lunch, Broadway. Mr. Markle attended Kingston High School and served in the Army Air Force. He owns and operates his own cab through Shultz's Taxi.

Frederick Jankowski, Anna L. Miller Wed Sunday Afternoon

St. Joseph's Church was the setting Sunday at 2:30 p. m. for the marriage of Miss Anna L. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Miller, 81 Grandview avenue, to Frederick Jankowski, 37 Third avenue. Msgr. Stephen P. Connelly officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Frank Rafferty was organist. Robert Rice was soloist.

Mr. Miller escorted his daughter. Her only attendant was Miss Agnes Janakis.

John Jankowski was best man for his brother. Ushers were Donald Jankowski, another brother; and Frederick Miller, brother of the bride.

A reception for 150 guests was held at Immaculate Conception School Hall. Out-of-town guests were from Newburgh, New York, Long Island, Beacon and Margaretville. Mr. and Mrs. Jankowski left for a wedding trip to New York city. For traveling she chose a plaid wool dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow tea roses. They will live in Trenton, N. J.

Mrs. Jankowski is a graduate of the Academy of St. Ursula and Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing. Mr. Jankowski was graduated from Kingston High School and served in the Army Air Corps in Italy. He is attending Rider College, Trenton, N. J., where he is a member of Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity.

Doris Visits in Jersey

New York, Nov. 28 (AP)—Mrs. Doris Duke Rubirosa, heiress to the Duke tobacco millions, arrived here from Paris aboard an Air France plane yesterday for what she said was a brief stay at her Somerville, N. J., home. Mrs. Rubirosa, who told reporters she had been working in Paris for the magazine, Harper's Bazaar, said that after her New Jersey visit she would join her husband, Porfirio Rubirosa, in Buenos Aires, where he was sent recently as Dominican ambassador to Argentina. The couple was married last September.

OPENING A LETTER IN COMPANY

The answer to the question, "Is it rude to open a letter and read it in front of another person?" depends on circumstances.

A letter brought by hand, requesting an answer, is opened at once. The ordinary arrival of the mail is put aside when you have visitors, until after they have gone. A letter in the handwriting of one whose news would be of interest to your visitor is opened perhaps and shared. Further than this, use your own natural instincts of courtesy.

No Orders to Other People's Servants

Dear Mrs. Post: If one would like to have a friend's chauffeur drive more slowly, may one tell him so or is it necessary to tell someone in the family first and let him give the order to him?

Answer: Only if you are alone in the car could you ask him to drive more slowly. If you are with a member of the family, your family, you should never address the chauffeur.

Family Portraits

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me the proper place to hang family portraits? The portraits I have reference to are those of present, living members of the family. Personally, I always have been a bit taken-back when confronted by a portrait of the wife or husband of the house, hanging in the most conspicuous place in the living room. Is it quite the modest thing to do in your own house?

Married in Rectory

fronted by a portrait of the wife or husband of the house, hanging in the most conspicuous place in the living room. Is it quite the modest thing to do in your own house?

Answer: No place is more suitable than your own house in which to hang your own and any other family portraits. The walls of the dining room are especially suitable, but the library, the living room and even the front hall are all proper, depending upon where each is shown to greatest advantage.

Bread on Table

Dear Mrs. Post: Where is bread

put when no bread and butter plates are included at dinner?

Answer: On the tablecloth. In fact, at a dinner too formal for bread and butter plates, the tablecloth is exactly where the bread is correctly put.

Mrs. Post's booklet No. 503, "The Etiquette of Service," gives the three classifications of table service: First, the formal or European; second, American service; third, the hostess-alone service. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99.

Marriage Announced

MRS. LAURENCE V. CONLIN

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary Bernadette Hornaker, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Hornaker of Rosendale, and the late Michael Hornaker, to Laurence V. Conlin of Wilbur, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Conlin. The ceremony was performed Sunday, November 18, 3 p. m. in St. Peter's Church, Rosendale, by the Rev. John Kelly.

Mrs. Frank Rafferty was organist. Anthony Bonacci sang "Ave Maria," and "Pans Angelicus." The church was decorated with large white chrysanthemums and pompons.

The bride wore a colonial style gown of heavy white satin, which she had designed. She carried a mother of pearl Rosary beads which were given to her by the rector of the Shrine at Saint Anne de Beaupre, Quebec, on her first visit to the shrine. She wore her first Holy Communion veil which she edged with satin and attached to a crown of handmade miniature white satin calla lilies.

The only jewelry worn by the bride was her mother's gold beads which she wore at her own wedding and were given to her by her mother. They are more than 100 years old and have been kept as a family heirloom.

Her sister, Miss Susan E. Hornaker, as maid of honor wore a silk fascias gown with large velvet bow in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of pompons.

James Conlin, brother of the bridegroom, of Jersey City, N. J., was best man.

A reception for the bride and groom was held at the Governor Clinton Hotel. Afterward the bride couple left for a wedding trip to Atlantic City, N. J. For traveling she chose a raspberry woolen suit with black accessories and a corsage of pompons. They will live in Rosendale.

Mrs. Conlin is a graduate of Spencer's Business School and is a secretary. Mr. Conlin is employed in the fuel oil business.

M. Colleen Roe Becomes Bride Of George Boice

The marriage of Miss Marion Colleen Roe, daughter of Mrs. Irving Roe, 84 Hurley avenue, and the late Mr. Roe, to George William Boice, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Boice, Sawkill road, was performed Sunday at 3 p. m. in St. Joseph's rectory. The Rev. John D. Simmons officiated.

The bride wore a green velvet dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Leo Roe, as matron of honor, wore a black tulle dress trimmed with pink, pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Charles Boice was best man for his brother.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Boice left for a wedding trip through New England. For traveling the bride selected a cerise dress, gray coat, black accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Boice are graduates of Kingston High School. Mrs. Boice is employed at Atlas Diamond Co. Mr. Boice operates a farm in Mt. Marion where they will make their home.

EAT WELL for Less

PRESSURE COOK YOUR ROAST

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Staff Writer

Many cooking experts believe pressure cooking is desirable for the less tender cuts of meat, particularly those cooked by moist heat, braising and simmering. However, these same authorities do not recommend pressure cooking for cuts needing dry heat—roasting, broiling, pan-frying.

Meat Balls in Tomato Sauce One pound ground beef, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 4 onions, 1 No. 2 can tomatoes.

Combine ground meat, seasonings and one of the onions, finely chopped. Shape into balls and roll in flour. Brown in melted drippings or lard in bottom of pressure saucepan. Add remaining 3 onions, thinly sliced, and tomatoes. Place cover on cooker. Begin counting time when pressure gauge reaches 15 pounds pressure. Cook for 5 minutes. Cool cooker at once. Remove meat balls and thicken tomato sauce with flour. Season if desired.

Bavarian Pot Roast Three pounds chuck roast, 3 tablespoons flour, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper, 1 medium onion, 1/2 bay leaf, 1 teaspoon caraway seed, 2 tablespoons cider vinegar, 2 tablespoons water.

Dredge meat with flour, salt and pepper. Brown meat in melted fat in pressure saucepan. Add chopped onion, bay leaf, caraway seed, vinegar and water. Cover tightly. Begin counting time when pressure gauge reaches 15 pounds pressure. Cook for 30 minutes. Allow gauge to return to normal. Remove meat and onions from cooker. Thicken liquid with flour or 1/2 cup crumbled gingersnaps. Serve with fluffy rice or cooked noodles.

SUNDAY'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit, fried bologna and eggs, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, jam, coffee, milk.

DINNER: Bavarian pot roast, noodles, Brussels sprouts, mixed green salad, steamed sweet pudding, foamy lemon sauce, coffee, milk.

SUPPER: Fried tomato rings on toast with melted cheese sauce, home-canned fruit, cookies, tea, milk.

Grandson of Local People

To Wed Poughkeepsie Girl Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Mary D'Auria, daughter of Joseph D'Auria, 401 Main street, Poughkeepsie, and the late Mrs. D'Auria; to Harold V. Every, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Every of Pleasant Valley. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect attended Millbrook schools and was graduated from Poughkeepsie High School, class of 1946. She is employed in the office of Lucky Platt and Co. Mr. Every is an alumnus of Arlington High School and is employed by the Pleasant Valley Finishing Company. He served with the Armed Forces. His grandparents are Mrs. James Winchell, Flatbush; and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Every, 15 Apple street.

Skater's Valise Found

A valise of theatrical design is being held at the sheriff's office pending the appearance of its owner. Sheriff George C. Smith reported today that the suitcase was turned over to him by a resident of Mt. Marion, who reported that it had been tossed out of an auto onto his lawn. The case contained a pair of girl's roller skates and bore the name "G.W. Roller Rink, Saugerties, N. Y."

The U. S. Navy in a three-year period produced 1,100 training films averaging two reels each.

Continued Rent Control Is Asked By Advisory Board

Continued control of rents beyond February 29, 1948, in the Poughkeepsie Defense-Rental Area, including Ulster, Dutchess and Orange counties, has been recommended by the Poughkeepsie Rent Advisory Board in a formal resolution to Tighe E. Woods, acting national housing expediter in Washington, Charles A. Butts of the Poughkeepsie office has announced.

The action was taken by the board at a recent meeting in Poughkeepsie. Before making its decision the board said it gave thorough consideration to facts on the housing situation in the area.

Burns on Board

Arthur J. Burns, Kingston realtor, is one of the board members. Others are Mrs. Arthur C. Trautz, Highland Falls housewife; William M. Hadden, Poughkeepsie engineer, and Stanley Vouelle, Middletown realtor.

Under the provisions of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, the Rent Advisory Board of the Poughkeepsie area is empowered to recommend to the housing expediter decontrol of rents in the Poughkeepsie Defense-Rental Area as well as make recommendations concerning the adequacy of the area.

'These Days'

BY GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

IS CHINA LOST?

The situation in China is this: The Nationalist Government, under the leadership of Chiang Kai-shek, has been fighting the Chinese Communists, a branch of the Third International directed by the Kremlin, since 1927.

Between 80 and 95 per cent of the revenue of the Chinese government has been consumed in this fight.

Were Chiang the selfish dictator that he is made out to be by Russia's satellites in this country, he would have settled at terms advantageous to him even if not to his country. Chiang could have been a collaborator. Instead he chose to fight.

As I was closely related to all these groups from 1919 to 1931, I can testify, from personal knowledge and experience, that this Chinese Communist group was organized by Michael Borodin, who, with Marshall Buecher, then called General Galens, and about 100 Russian civilian and military advisers, came to China in 1924 and remained until 1927, when they were dismissed by Chiang. They thought he was their puppet.

The top command of the present Chinese Communist group consists of men who were then in the Third International, some of whom studied in Red Army Schools, attended conferences at Baku and Moscow, and whose relationship to the Third International was recorded in the official minutes of this body as released in several languages in its official organ called the International Press Correspondence. These come-lately American journalists and publicists who write and say that the Chinese Communists are not Communists but only called themselves such, describe themselves either as willing dupes or propagandists.

Since September 19, 1931, Chiang Kai-shek has been at war with Japan and the Communists. During the period of the Hitler-Stalin Alliance, the Chinese Communists fought Chiang but were neutral concerning Japan. After Soviet Russia entered the European war, the Chinese Communists fought Japan but not too aggressively; they used that situation to capture Japanese war supplies and to inveigle this country into giving them supplies which they subsequently used to continue the civil war against their own country. They played upon the vanities of General Stilwell, who was treated by Chiang Kai-shek, quite properly, as a subordinate.

It is true that China suffers from inflation and corruption. When a government is forced for years to fight a giant like Soviet Russia and a great power like Japan and put down civil war, directed by Soviet Russia, utilizing its revenues for the sole task of remaining unconquered, it cannot develop constructive strength nor can it risk increasing dissension by putting down corruption. For, in addition to the tasks already indicated, Chiang Kai-shek functions in a transition from feudalism to nationalism, involving a shift from predatory officialdom to some type of representative government.

In all his efforts, Chiang has had the support of the United States, without which he could have been squeezed to defeat by Russia and Japan. When Mr. Truman became President, he sent General Marshall to China, where he remained for a year or more, attempting to effectuate a peace between the National Government and the Communists. Such a peace would have been disastrous to China and to the world.

The calamity is that after General Marshall's visit the United States has cut Chiang off, giving the Communists and Soviet Russia the advantage. Chiang, now unaided, is reaching a state of exhaustion. Without our assistance, it is even possible that by next Spring the Communists will be able to make most, if not all, of China as much a puppet of the Kremlin as Poland now is.

Chiang needs most of all war supplies which he can only obtain from the United States. This country possesses vast stores of such supplies which rot and rust in many stores in the Pacific area. Those supplies are obsolete and are not worth the cost of returning them to the United States. For Chiang, they are not obsolete and they mean freedom for his country.

Why do we not give him those supplies? Are they worth more as rust than they are as strength for China? Who is preventing this country from giving them to Chiang?

Ex-Navy Chaplain Will Speak Here Next Monday Night

Captain M. Witherspoon to Address Roundout Lodge; Was Cited by Drew Pearson

M. M. WITHERSPOON
Captain Maurice M. Witherspoon, executive director of the New York State Masonic Committee on service and rehabilitation, will speak on "Masonry Tomorrow" when he appears at the Mason's Roundout Lodge, 343 Kingston, Monday, December 1, it was announced today.

Called by Drew Pearson, noted columnist as one of the Navy's most popular chaplains, Capt. Witherspoon is renowned for his imaginative, action packed programs which he has built and presented aboard ship in every one of our fleets in China, Central America and the Aleutians.

His bureau has placed more than 11,000 veterans in colleges, jobs and found their families housing needs. He has an international reputation for work in human welfare and world affairs. Holder of the Bronze Star for morale building work in the bleak Aleutian campaign, Captain Witherspoon has been cited many times by nations and organizations around the globe.

The former army chaplain firmly believes that Masonry can play an active role in the leadership today. He has urged close cooperation in community group work, service and world affairs.

In his request for Masons to work toward a brighter future he has cited the example of the new Masonic Foundation for Medical Research and Human Welfare which will provide funds for research into the cause, cure and prevention of childhood's most serious disease, rheumatic fever. This program will offer assistance to the more than million children in the United States who suffer from some form of this disease and will be offered without barrier of race, creed or color.

Izvestia Attacks A. H. Vandenberg And Tom Connally

Moscow, Nov. 28 (UP)—Izvestia in the strongest language it has used to date in reference to members of the U. S. Congress—today accused Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of "anti-Sovietism, false indignation and lying."

The Soviet government organ also leveled strong words at Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex.), whom it accused, with Vandenberg, of championing the cause of "American monopolists" who Izvestia said are seeking through the Marshall plan to seize the economic resources of Europe. Izvestia also assailed Rep. Marlon T. Bennett (R-Mo.) as a "mouthpiece for ruling circles" in America.

Two Cars Are Damaged

Two automobiles were slightly damaged shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon on Broadway near Andrew street. Edward Mace of Newburgh reported to police that he was driving south on Broadway when the car in front of him stopped suddenly. Mace said that he applied his brakes, and a car owned and operated by H. C. DeWitt of Balmville, struck the rear of his car.

Msgr. Drury Will Be Invested December 8

Investiture services attendant upon the elevation of the Right Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Drury, V.F., from papal chamberlain of the church to that of domestic prelate will be held Monday evening, December 8.

At the services at St. Mary's Church, the Right Rev. Msgr. Henry F. O'Carroll, P. A., of Newburgh, will conduct the investiture and the Right Rev. Msgr. John J.

Stanley of New York, a former pastor of St. Mary's, will deliver the sermon.

Following the church services there will be a parish reception in the school auditorium. The reception program will be under the sponsorship of the Holy Name Society.

Student's Body Found in Woods; Died From Bullet

Autopsy to Be Performed to Determine Cause of Death; Vassar Graduate

Wayland, Mass., Nov. 28 (UP)—The nude and frozen body of a brilliant 22-year-old graduate student at Radcliffe College was found in a lonely wooded glen here last night with a rifle shot through the head.

Associate Medical Examiner J. Harry McCann said that the young woman, Frances C. Flint, an honor graduate of Vassar College, apparently was a suicide but that he couldn't be sure until an autopsy was performed.

Flint, the body ended a search which began Tuesday when the girl's mother, Mrs. William Flint of Cambridge, widow of a former instructor at Fashionable St. Paul's School in Concord, N. H., reported her missing.

Police Chief Ernest Damon said that a 22 calibre Winchester rifle was found about 10 or 15 feet from the body and that the girl's clothing was scattered several feet away.

State detectives called into the investigation said they were trying to determine if it would have been possible for the young woman to move after the bullet had entered her head.

They also were mystified at the manner in which her clothing was scattered along the trail—some on the ground and some on the branches of bushes.

Car Is Discovered

An automobile, which the girl had been reported driving earlier in the week, was discovered in a nearby lane. Damon said a rifle box and a bill of sale for a rifle from a Greater Boston store were found in the car which bore New Hampshire registration plates. The girl's mother is a former president of the New Hampshire

League of Women Voters, and is a house mother at Eliot Hall, Radcliffe. Her father and paternal grandfather both were Rhodes scholars.

Mrs. Leonard W. Cronkite, dean of the Radcliffe Graduate School, described Frances as "a happy normal girl," and college chums reported she had no particular boy friend although she dated often.

A graduate of Vassar in 1945, Miss Flint worked at the Radcliffe Appointment Bureau before entering the graduate school this fall. She would have received her master's degree in history and the philosophy of religion in June, 1948.

The body was discovered by a special police officer and his nephew who began poking about the woods after a passerby reported that an automobile had been parked in the nearby lane since Tuesday.

Rifton Students

Signed by Albert E. Milliken, Kingston architect, and caller for a colonial type structure with two classrooms and an auditorium.

Both the location of the school and its plans were approved by the State Department of Education at a maximum expenditure of $50,000. This building would replace the present one-room school, which now serves 42 pupils.

At the start of this school year it was necessary for trustees to purchase new desks, and at the present time the desks extend to the blackboards. Twelve new students will be eligible to enter next fall, and only six are expected to graduate.

As the result of a petition circulated through the village, the trustees have agreed to conduct another meeting, when a second vote on the same proposition will be held during the first part of December.

to exempt. Another decree gave the force of law to a government decision to have all workers in private industry paid a 1,500 franc raise the national minimum wage ($12) cost-of-living bonus every month. The effect of this is to 9,750 francs ($82) a month.

Strike leaders already said this does not meet their demands for higher pay.

Schuman, who is confronted with a Russian government demand that 19 Soviet citizens—whose arrest was reported Tuesday on charges of interfering in French labor affairs—be brought to the Soviet embassy at once, told the assembly in the final stages of debate this morning that with regard to the strikes "this day will not pass without your getting, sure, and effective proofs of the government's energetic attitude."

This morning's vote, which ended 14 hours of debate on the crippling strike crisis, came as a wide open split appeared in the ranks of labor.

A national central strike committee was formed, including 20 striking national union organizations under Communist leadership within the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor.

Opposing this committee was a movement called the "workers force," representing the more militant of the old majority union elements from whom the Communists took over after the war.

Group Claims Control

This group claimed control of 14 national unions. The Communists control five additional unions outside the national strike committee, indicating their resources are not yet exhausted although the spread of the strikes appeared to have slowed down.

Telephone workers were called out yesterday but spot calls to three left bank Paris exchanges showed them operating today, after police expelled union delegations guarding switches.

The response to a general strike call on French railways was far from complete, but still effective enough to disrupt all but occasional token traffic on most lines. Rightist newspapers charged the strikers were sabotaging the lines.

Food was running low in the big central markets of Paris, the newspaper supply was dwindling swiftly and the government ordered all papers reduced to two pages daily.

Robert Lacoste, the minister of industry, announced last night that if the coal strike continued there would be no electricity in Paris by Tuesday. Gas pressure already was low because of stoppages at gas works.

Ports and merchant marine remained idle and most heavy industry was seriously crippled.

Military Takes Over
Rome, Nov. 28 (UP)—Military authorities took control of civil powers in the province and city of Milan today, the Italian news agency ANSA reported. This action followed the national government's removal of its prefect at Milan, Ettore Troilo. The mayor, Socialist Antonio Greppi, resigned as a sign of solidarity with the ousted prefect, and labor organizations in Milan called a one-day general strike which paralyzed transportation and left newspapers unpublished.

PHOENICIA

Phoenicia, Nov. 28 — Edmund McGrath, a senior in Venable Institute, Albany, was selected by his high rating in American history as one of the students to compete in the Hearst Newspaper American History contest. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGrath.

Mrs. W. Van Steenburgh, president of the Thimble Club of the Methodist Church, presided at the meeting held Thursday evening. Mrs. Coutant has been taken to the hospital for treatment.

Jacquelyn and Kay Loomis were recent visitors in Kingston. Miss Catherine McGrath, who returned recently from visiting her sister Mary in Caracas, Venezuela, brought some foreign coins for Mrs. A. Perry Loomis.

Billy McGrath, Jr., was among the hunters who bagged a deer. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ring are spending some time in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Denny Lynch and family have moved into their rooms on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Schoonmaker and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sickler have returned from a vacation trip to Canada.

Imported Mummies
In 1885 and for a few years thereafter, bonafide Egyptian mummies were imported into England and their linen wrappings were converted into paper; mummy paper was of fine quality and much in demand.

A quart of milk is equal in energy value to a pound of lean beef.

What OIL BURNER is sold and installed only by heating men?

PETRO OF COURSE!

Your heating contractor knows home-heating. With all his experience and technical know-how he will help you understand how to install your Petro Oil Burner correctly — so it will give you the many years of low-cost, low-performance built into it by the maker.

When you place your heating problem in the hands of an established heating man, you put it where it will receive the same care, common sense and good judgment that were used in building up that contractor's entire business reputation.

Kingston Defeats Newburgh 12-6; Port Jervis Stops Middies 9-6

Ghear and Jones Score Touchdowns As Maroon Takes Holiday Classic

The football team everybody thought was the best in the DUSO League in 1947 may still be the best but for the sake of posterity it will be recorded that the Red and Black Raiders of Port Jervis won the championship with four victories, one defeat and a tie in the wildest, most unpredictable campaign in DUSO history.

Crowds of more than 5,000 jammed municipal stadium and Wilson Field in Middletown as Kingston whipped Newburgh 12 to 6, while Port Jervis repulsed a desperate last minute goal line assault by Middletown to edge the Middies 9 to 6. That's the way the experts had called it and for once in this amazing season they were right.

Kingston finished with a record of two wins, one loss and three ties.

Thus Port Jervis in annexing its first DUSO championship since 1938 shattered a nine-year jinx at Wilson Field. The game was a real donnybrook featured by slugging, roughing and confusion.

A Great Victory

For Coach Bill Burke and the K.H.S. gridders yesterday's triumph over the traditional foe from the Hill City was a magnificent achievement. The huge holiday throng estimated by K.H.S. treasury officials as the largest paid attendance in Kingston football history thrilled to a brilliant performance by a team that could have won the championship had Dame Fortune smiled on them in late, lamented Port Jervis fracas.

Two of the touchdowns came on fast breaking plays that exploded unexpectedly before the holiday throng.

A brilliantly executed pass from Titus to Bob Ghear went 33 yards for the first Kingston TD early in the second period. After an electrifying 51-yard off tackle sprint by Dom Aulogia, hard charging Newburgh quarterback had carried to Kingston's 23, the Maroon held and forced the Aca demicians to kick over the goal line. Kingston picked up two first downs, were set back five yards for offside and a plunge by Bill Kitsoos set up the play on the Kingston 47.

Titus faded back to pass and hit Ghear at the 30-yard line where the lanky end made a nice catch surrounded by a host of Newburgh defenders. Ghear headed straight for paydirt and then veered to the right hand corner of the field, crossing unmolested into the end zone. The rush for extra point was piled up and Kingston led 6-0. The touchdown march covered 80 yards.

Jones Scores

The second Kingston touchdown covered 25 yards when Harry Koch dumped Tyler for a huge loss as the latter was trying to kick on fourth down. Two plays carried to the 14 and Newburgh was penalized 5 yards for having 12 men on the field for first down on the Newburgh 9. Buddy Jones rammed over on a quarterback sneak and it was Kingston 12, Newburgh 0, as the rush for extra point failed.

Newburgh averted the ignominy of a shutout in this hallowed series in the fourth quarter by executing one of the most complicated pass plays seen at the stadium this season. It seemed that everybody but the water boy handled the pigskin before Ronsini went over on a play that started on Kingston's 38-yard line.

The ball went to quarterback Tony Yozzo who lateraled to Aulogia who tossed it right back to Ralph Yozzo. The latter completed a 15-yard forward to Ronsini who went all the way. Newburgh tried a series of desperation passes in the closing minutes, including a duplicate of the TD aerial but it was snared.

The game by quarters:

First Period
Newburgh returned the opening kickoff to their own 38. The Goldbacks picked up a first down on three runs and then ran for Ronsini shoving the ball to the Newburgh 49. Newburgh was penalized twice for being offside, and the oval rested on the Newburgh 44. The Newburgh running attack tried it from the line three times more, but Dom Lofaro punted out of trouble from the Kingston 46 after the Goldbacks failed to crash deep into Maroon territory.

Kingston's mighty scoring attack suffered a sharp ending momentarily in the next few minutes, as the Maroon lost the ball on the Newburgh 20 after four consecutive first downs. Before Newburgh halted the marching Maroon, the Burkemen reeled off 11 plays for 60 yards. The Maroon needed two plays for a fifth first down but failed in the clutch as Billy Kitsoos was stopped in his fourth try for the needed half a foot. The period ended with Newburgh holding the ball on their own 23. Score at the end of the first period Kingston 0, Newburgh 0.

Second Period

Dom Aulogia, hard-charging Newburgh quarterback, electrified the throng by zipping 51 yards off his left end to place Newburgh in scoring position on the Kingston 23. That was the end of the fireworks, however, as Newburgh failed to gain any more ground. Kingston picked up two first downs to move the ball from the 23 to their 48. Referee Lou Horsman penalized Kingston five yards for being offside. After Kitsoos picked up one yard to the 47, Dee Titus fired a brilliant pass to Bob Ghear and the left end crossed the field to score after a magnificent 53 yard run. The pass itself was for about 30 yards, and the fleet-footed end covered the remaining distance. Renszo tried for the point but the Newburgh line held.

That ended the scoring for the first half, and neither team managed to get deep into the other's territory. Score at the end of the second period, Kingston 6, Newburgh 0.

Third Period

Kingston kicked off to start the second half. After Newburgh failed to do anything in three tries from their own 27, Dick Tyler attempted to punt out of danger, but the Maroon line broke it up and Harry Koch dropped Tyler on the Newburgh 25. On the play, Koch suffered an injured leg. He remained in the game, however. Kingston made two plays to the 14, and a penalty against Newburgh for having 12 men on the field put the pigskin on the nine. Buddy Jones went over for the second touchdown on a quarterback sneak from the four. Again the plunge for the point was no good. There was no more scoring in the third period, as the Kingston defense again to Goldback territory. Just before the period ended Newburgh took over the ball on their own 40. Score at the end of the period was Kingston 12, Newburgh 0.

Fourth Period

Newburgh continued its passing attack, started just before the third period ended. Newburgh took the ball away from Kingston on the downs on the Newburgh 20 after Bob Ghear intercepted Tyler's pass on the 30. Newburgh returned the ball to the Kingston 38 on a series of passes and line bucks. On the next play Newburgh pulled one of the most complicated formations seen in the stadium this year. It was good for a touchdown, however, as the Maroon couldn't keep track of the ball and after four men handled the ball Ronsini jogged into the payoff section for the score. On the play, Center Don Jones passed the ball to quarterback Tony Yozzo. Yozzo flipped the ball sideways to Aulogia, who tossed it right back to Ralph Yozzo who then fired a 15-yard pass to Ronsini on the Kingston 45 who ripped up the remaining distance for the score. The placement by Tyler failed and Kingston held a 6-point margin. Again the Newburgh aerial attack opened up, but the Hill City gridders coached by Stanton Hemingway couldn't find their target and Kingston protected its one-touchdown lead. Kingston was in possession of the ball on the Newburgh 25 as the game ended. Final score: Kingston 12, Newburgh 6.

Branca's Trounce Legionnaires, 57-37

Dodger Hurler Paces Winners With 18 Points

The storm warnings were up on the American Legion basketball front today, following a 57-37 thumping suffered at the hands of Big Ralph Branca's Mount Vernon Dodgers last night before a holiday crowd of some 700 spectators at municipal auditorium.

Big Ralph, a 21-game winner for the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League pennant race who was suddenly afflicted with rabbit ears in the World Series was a basketball player of considerable composure as he personally led the Westchesters to victory with 18 points.

Except for the first quarter of play, the Legionnaires were outclassed in their bid for a second straight victory, and Coach Andy Dykes was reported coming the area for players adept at the fast break style of play.

West Ventrur Next

The imminent appearance of Wes Westrum and the crack Millerton club on Wednesday December 3, offers no immediate relief to the Legionnaire board of strategy. This is rated as one of the first independent quintes in the state.

A 25-point fourth quarter sparked by Branca's deft layup and backboard shots broke the game wide open. The Legionnaires ran up a 11-5 lead in the first quarter but were stalled on a salary foul shot in the second to trail 12-17 at the half.

Murphy's four points paced the Legionnaires to an 11-5 edge at the quarter mark and the happy holiday throng settled back comfortable in anticipation of a Kingston victory. Then the Dodgers started rolling and the Legionnaires' defense buckled.

Branca, Clinks

Branca accounted for six of the 12 Dodger points in the second period. The big right hander, Walsh, and Boggs assaulted the wicket freely in the third period to build up a 32-25 bulge going into the home stretch.

For a few fleeting minutes the latent Kingston power began to assert itself. Charlie Bock rifled a long set shot and Ray Lindhurst drifted in for a layup to slice the Dodger lead to five points 32-27.

The Dodgers accepted the challenge, however, and ran up six straight points for 38-27 at the seven minute mark. They added six more with Branca doing the heavy work while Ruzzo and Lindhurst scored for the Legionnaires making it 44-31 at the four minute mark. Bock all intents and purposes the ball game was over but the visitors kept pouring it on in the closing minutes.

Walsh and Boggs tallied 10 and 8 respectively for the winners on a variety of spectacular shots. Ray Lindhurst, capped scoring honors for the locals with 9 points. Big Andy Murphy dropped eight, with Bloom and Bock each scoring seven.

SECONDARY AND BACKS IGNORED IN WEST VIRGINIA'S OLD-FASHIONED PASS

Tenth of a series by foremost coaches written for NEA Service

By BILL KERN

West Virginia Coach

Morgantown, W. Va. (NEA)—

Illustrated in the accompanying diagram is an old-fashioned pass play. There is no fakery, deception or any of the new tricks in it. The pass depends entirely on speed.

It accounted for our second touchdown against Penn State, Oct. 25, although we lost 21-14.

DiMaggio Shades Williams For Most Valuable Honors

New York, Nov. 28 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, star centerfielder of the World Champion New York Yankees, today joined Jimmy Fox, former great slugger of the Philadelphia Athletics and Boston Red Sox as the only three-time winners when he was named the most valuable player of the American League for 1947.

In the closest race in the history of the award, DiMaggio compiled a total of 302 points in the vote of the 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America to nose out Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox by one point.

Williams, who gained the triple crown by leading the league in batting (.343), runs batted in (114) and home runs (32) as well as in runs scored, total bases and bases on balls, polled 201 votes for the runner-up spot. It was the second time he finished second to DiMaggio.

The Red Sox slugging outfielder, who won the award hands down last year with 234 votes, finished second to DiMaggio in 1941. DiMaggio also won in 1939. Fox gained the honor in 1932 and '33 with the Athletics and in 1938 with the Red Sox.

The balloting for third place also was decided by one point with Lou Boudreau, shortstop-manager of the Cleveland Indians beating out Joe Judge, the Yankees' great left-handed relief pitcher, 165 votes to 157. George Kell, outstanding Detroit third baseman, was fifth with 132 points and George McQuinn, the Yankees' bargain basement first baseman, was sixth with 77 points.

Gordon, acquired by the Indians in a winter deal with the Yankees for pitcher Alie Reynolds, beat out Bob Feller, the famous pitching teammate by one point for seventh place, 59 points to 58. Phil Marchildon, Canadian right-hander of the Athletics who won 19 games for a second division club, landed ninth position with 47 points, four more than Luke Appling, shortstop of the Chicago White Sox got for the 10th spot.

DiMaggio celebrated his 33rd birthday only last Tuesday by leaving Johns Hopkins Hospital following a successful operation for an elbow ailment.

Cold figures are misleading in the case of DiMaggio. While the figures show he batted only .315, 26 points behind Williams' figure, and drove in 98 runs on 20 home runs, he was far more valuable than that.

Port Jervis Repulses Middies At Goal Line to Cinch DUSO

(Special to The Freeman)

Middletown, Nov. 27—A plucky Port Jervis eleven that was thoroughly outplayed and pushed around Wilson Field by a desperate Middletown squad shattered a 9-year jinx to edge the Middies, 9-6, and capture their first DUSO football championship since 1938 here today before 5,000 fans.

Port repulsed a desperate Middletown drive at the goal line in the closing seconds of play to avert one of the most stunning upsets in DUSO history.

Three times Hugh Summers smashed at the Port forward wall in the last minutes from the 5 1/2 yard line. The goal was still two yards away on fourth down when a Middie aerial failed. That was the ball game.

Port Jervis went ahead in the opening minutes when Hank Kindborg was tackled in the end zone for a safety. Ray Nicolette plunged from behind the Port goal line to make it 9-0. Nicolette, regarded as the DUSO's best back, was later ejected from the game for slugging.

Sardella Goes 51
Middletown's lone tally came on a wild 75-yard march in the third period, climaxed by Sardella's 51-yard sprint off right tackle.

Middletown's golden opportunity was set up late in the fourth period when the Port punter kicked a 22-yard punt behind the Port goal line to the 25. Port was twice penalized for pushing and shoving moving the ball to the 5 1/2 yard line. The slugging was terrific at this point and Nicolette was thumbed out.

The Middies outtrashed the vaunted Port backfield, picking up 58 yards passing to 38 for the Red and Black.

But, as usual, they paid off on the final score.

Cy Goldfarb tacked a 233 finish on to games of 155 and 161 and it was sufficient for a 549 triple—high mark of the Booster League this week.

Five hundreds were generally scarce. B. Canavan shot 514. Bob Tierney posted 204-532 for Sam's Restaurant, while George Pieper hit 200-494; veteran J. P. Hayman packed in a nice 221 middle set; Frank Cirone had 202, while Ted Gile Sr. shot 192-506.

Powered by Mrs. Schatzel, the Central Recreation League's hammerers out a 939 team single high for the season, and added 820 and 803 for a 2563 triple. Rita La Rocca was runnerup with 205-524 and Doris Wolff furnished 655.

Other matches, Evelyn Dolson bagged her best series of the campaign—554—with games of 159-197-198. Dot Rawling had 199 with 186; Reta Frederick 177-506; M. Lynn 192-492; Evelyn Francis 190-547; Eleanor Nagy rallied after 118 for 181-185-492; M. Kelekin 180-493 and Berntha Schaller 179-502.

Rose Schatzel put together a trio of 200 solos to pace the Colonial Women's League in a brisk pre-holiday scoring session Wednesday, compiling an aggregate 615 on games of 211, 203 and 201.

Officers and Guests at Olive Commerce Dinner

Officers of the Town of Olive Chamber of Commerce and guests at the Chamber's first dinner held in the Pheasant Inn, Shokan, Tuesday night to plan progress for the town. Front row from left, Edmund R. Bower, Ulster county 4-H Club agent; Miss Margaret Brundage, assistant county 4-H Club agent; the Rev. Raymond B. Coons, of the Dutch Reformed Church, Shokan; Edward

Boiceville Factory Planned by Olive Commerce Group

Other Ways Are Suggested for Town Improvement; Seeks Physician for Section

Officers of the newly formed Chamber of Commerce of the Town of Olive, the home of the Ashokan Reservoir, announced today the first results of its intensive program for the civic, commercial and industrial development of the town.

Edward Wiederspiel, president of the chamber, said a committee of the organization had approached business men who are to establish at Boiceville, on Route 28, a factory for the manufacture of women's sweaters, which is to employ 30 persons. The sponsors, he said, agreed with the chamber that preference would be given to persons residing in the Town of Olive, thus assuring 30 more jobs for the townspeople.

The chamber also is seeking to bring a physician into the town, and to this end has opened negotiations with the medical associations in New York.

The new chamber got underway Tuesday night in fine style with a dinner, followed by a general meeting, at the Pheasant Inn, in Shokan, which was attended by about 100 residents of the town. Philip Coletti of West Shokan, the toastmaster introduced as guest speaker, Donald Williams, secretary of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce, and Edmund R. Bower, county 4-H Club agent, who praised the chamber's program for making the Town of Olive a better place to live and work.

Mr. Williams stressed the fact that an active Chamber of Commerce should be of benefit to the town in that it could help bring in new business and new industry. He classified farming and tourist trade as fount of industry.

"The chamber of Commerce is a group to better the community as regards civic, business and industrial improvement," he said. He added that the Kingston Chamber of Commerce would cooperate with the Olive unit "in any way that it can be helpful."

"It is unfortunate that many people in all walks of life are apt to put politics first," said Mr. Williams. "In reality they should put business ahead of politics. A person's own walk of life should come first. Everyone should be interested in good government; and a good Chamber of Commerce working on a non-political basis can be helpful in assuring good government."

Mr. Wiederspiel assured the members that the chamber would be operated on a non-political basis, and pointed out the large number of town officers of both parties who were present as proof of a non-partisan support.

Improvement Suggestions

Suggestions for town improvement made by officers and members of the chamber, as follows:

"That the chamber support fire protection for the Town of Olive."

"That the chamber immediately try to bring about improvements in the existing bus schedules and also to try to obtain bus service for parts of the town not now served."

"That reasonable and safe speeds be established on dangerous highways in the town and that the roads be adequately marked and policed."

"That, in order to service prospective new residents, the Chamber list any real estate which may be for sale."

"That an illustrated booklet depicting the scenic beauties and business and residential opportunities of the town be published for the purpose of adequately advertising the town's many attractions."

4-11 Bureau to Help

Mr. Bower, speaking in behalf of the 4-H Club movement, described the work of these clubs in Ulster county and pledged the assistance of his bureau in establishing clubs in Olive community. He suggested the establishment of separate clubs in the various Olive population centers rather than one large club for the entire town.

Supervisor Claude Bell of Olive also spoke in behalf of the work of the Chamber.

Mr. Wiederspiel told the members that the slogan, "Olive, the Home of the Ashokan Reservoir," had been suggested to the Chamber, but that he would welcome other entries for discussion and adoption at the next meeting in January.

Other officers present at the dinner were George McNamara, first vice president; Homer Markle, second vice president; Robert Hartley, secretary, and Harold Wilkins, treasurer.

It was announced that dues would be one dollar a year for individuals and five dollars a year for business firms.

French Bride May Be Shipped Back; Hid Aboard Ship

Portland, Mo., Nov. 28 (AP)—A dainty 23-year-old French bride who lost 15 pounds hiding in an 18-inch high oil tanker locker to follow her husband from France to the United States today faced possible deportation.

Maria Louise Hicks, wife of Lavern A. Hicks, 22, of Oakes, N. D., an oiler aboard the tanker Chocoma Trail, was turned over to immigration officials when the vessel docked here yesterday.

Capt. Berger L. Vison said the girl stowed away in the rope locker at Le Havre, France, November 1, eight days after her marriage, and was not discovered until the vessel left Venezuela 16 days later.

The girl's husband brought her food and water until bad weather made her seasick and forced her out of the tiny compartment.

Girl Is Hurt When Car Hits Pole on Lucas Avenue

Joan Cain, 85 Wurts street, was taken to Kingston Hospital early this morning after the car in which she was riding struck a telephone pole on Lucas avenue near Lafayette avenue. She received a cut on her nose which required three stitches to close, police reported.

The car, driven by Richard S. Gibbs of 46 Lounsbury place, was traveling east on Lucas avenue when it struck the pole. As a result of the accident, the radiator of the automobile sprang a leak and alcohol became ignited. An alarm was sounded from Box 1531, Lucas and Lafayette avenues, and firemen responding extinguished the blaze with chemicals.

The driver, Gibbs, was treated at the scene for a cut inside his mouth and a bruise on the forehead, police reported. Miss Cain, who remained in the hospital, was reported in good condition today.

Mrs. Hutty Heads Nursing Committee

Woodstock, Nov. 28—Mrs. Warren Hutty was elected president of the Woodstock Public Health Nursing Committee at the annual meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Harry Kutzschbach, Bearsville. Other officers elected include Mrs. Joseph Marr, vice president; Mrs. Joseph Friedberg, secretary, and Mrs. Clayton Harder, treasurer.

The past year's work was reviewed and plans made for the current year which included listing of articles in the loan closet which are available to the residents of the community. These lists will be placed with druggists and doctors and in the schools. Christmas decorations will be put up in the clinic rooms prior to the meeting Wednesday, December 17. It was decided to give a party for the teen-age group some time in February. The Health Centre will prepare a calendar showing its project for each month during the next year.

The group presented Mrs. Charles King, retiring president, with a lovely etching by Clarence Bolton in appreciation for the leadership she has given them.

A social hour followed the meeting which was attended by Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Warren Hutty, Mrs. Joseph Hilton, Mrs. Marion Bullard, Mrs. Joseph Marr, Miss Ann Cassidy, Mrs. Samuel Wilson, Mrs. Clayton Harder, Mrs. Joseph Friedberg, Mrs. Joseph Friedberg, Mrs. L. Kreyer, Mrs. Louis Bared, Mrs. Elizabeth Clough and Mrs. Harry Kutzschbach.

Accused of 'Pressure'

New York, Nov. 28 (AP)—Supporters of the "Soviet-American" plan to partition Palestine were accused of using "pressure" tactics today as the hotly contested issue approached a fateful vote in the United Nations Assembly. The charges were made on the Assembly floor by Pakistan, Cuba and Iraq—all opponents of the plan to split the Holy Land into separate Arab and Jewish countries.

Rapporteur Complaint Leads to Delevan Arrest

An alleged hit-and-run driver was arrested by Patrolman Thomas Tomshaw at the Municipal Auditorium Wednesday night shortly after the accident and complaint were reported to police.

At 10:20 p. m. Wednesday, William Rapoport, 114 Tremper avenue, reported that, as he was driving north on Broadway, near Hoffman street, his car was struck by a pick-up truck, causing damage to his truck and damaging the radiator of the truck so that it leaked. Rapoport said the truck passed momentarily, then continued on.

The truck was spotted by Tomshaw near the Auditorium about 11:45 p. m., and the driver, Raymond Delevan, 154 Murray street, was arrested on a charge of driving without a license. Brought before City Judge Matthew V. Cahill today, Delevan was fined $25 and given a sentence of 30 days in the county jail, suspended pending his good behavior.

George Dietrich Dies of Leukemia; Served Jail Term

Roslyn, N. Y., Nov. 28 (AP)—George Dietrich, 53, brother and business associate of the late F. Donald Coster-Musica who engineered one of the most melodramatic swindles of the turbulent 30's, died in a hospital here yesterday of leukemia.

Dietrich, whose home was in Fairfield, Conn., entered the hospital several weeks ago.

As assistant treasurer of the vast McKesson & Robbins drug empire which Coster-Musica headed, Dietrich was sentenced in 1940 to two and one-half years in prison on mail fraud and conspiracy charges growing out of his brother's $21,000,000 faked assets manipulations of the company's books.

Two other brothers and Coster-Musica's brother-in-law pleaded guilty to similar charges and received prison sentences. Dietrich was the government's chief witness during the trial, which involved other officials of the firm as well.

Testimony disclosed that Coster-Musica padded the corporation's assets, operated pseudo-branches, companies and warehouses that never existed, paid blackmail for years to conceal his past—and shot himself to death in his Connecticut mansion in December, 1938 as government agents walked to the front door to arrest him.

The government described him as an ex-convict and former bootlegger whose strange financial machinations as president of the $87,000,000 drug firm constituted "one of the greatest crimes in history."

Prosecuting attorneys told the court that Dietrich as a government witness had given "invaluable aid to the government and without it would have taken several years instead of 17 months to uncover Coster's fraud."

Dietrich's role in the gigantic swindle, they said, involved custody of "pet orders"—spurious orders used by Coster-Musica to inflate company assets.

Dietrich is survived by his
